

WHY CHOOSE SUPPORT FUNCTIONS?

1. All your support solutions in one place

No other support provider can offer what we can ~ solutions to your accounting, administrative, IT, training and marketing needs all in a single place.

2. Business Analysis and Management Reporting

We don't just 'crunch numbers' ~ at SupportFunctions.com we offer you analysis of your business and control over your operations. We help you learn more about your business so that you can become more efficient and more profitable.

3. Quality of Work

We provide the very highest quality in the technical areas that you need. We have CPAs in charge of our accounting, world leaders in technology developing IT hardware and software solutions for your business, and recognized experts providing training and development programs.

4. Driven by Automation

We improve accuracy, decrease cost and increase speed of processing by implementing fully automated processes for your operation. Our end-to-end fully integrated solutions offer seamless processing that eliminates human error and provides fast, accurate, low cost management of your business information needs.

5. Real life experience

We carefully select our key people; they all have real world experience working as managers of successful businesses. We avoid the 'ivory tower syndrome' where the back office support personnel are divorced from the realities of running a business with real customers and real operational needs.

6. You hire an entire team

For the cost of a single administrative employee you hire an entire team of professionals across a variety of disciplines. Your business benefits from having CPAs controlling your accounting and management reporting, expert business analysts providing you with operational advice, world class IT experts trained in America's biggest companies designing your information systems, and leading experts providing focused training to your people. Suddenly your small company can act like a big company.

7. Synergy

Because our team works together every day, the variety of services are integrated through a team of professionals giving you a result that is greater than the sum of its parts.

8. You get rid of headaches

We are experts in Accounting, Payroll, Administration, IT, Training and Marketing. We specialize in support that allows you to focus on what you do best, letting us worry about the rest.

Find out what we can do for you.
